November 18, 2016

During this Thanksgiving season, we are reminded of the many blessings that we receive from our students and their parents, our alumni and their families, our teachers and staff, and the priests and sisters who served our school over the years. We are blessed because these people generously share their time and talents plus gifts of money and other items that help us so much.

We hope that all of you experience a Thanksgiving filled with blessings, including time with your family and friends. We would like to share the following Thanksgiving blessing with you.

A Thanksgiving Blessing by Joyce Rupp

May an abundance of gratitude burst forth as you reflect upon what you have received.

May thanksgiving overflow in your heart,
and often be proclaimed in your prayer.

May you gather around the table of your heart
the ardent faithfulness, kindness, and goodness of each person who is true to you.

May the harvest of your good actions
bring forth plentiful fruit each day.

May you discover a cache of hidden wisdom
among the people and events that have brought you distress and sorrow.

May your basket of blessings surprise you with its rich diversity of gifts and its opportunities for growth.

May all that nourishes and resources your life
bring you daily satisfaction and renewed hope.
May you slow your hurried pace of life
so you can be aware of, and enjoy,
what you too easily take for granted.
May you always be open, willing,
and ready to share your blessings with others.
May you never forget the Generous One who loves you lavishly and unconditionally.

SOCIAL SKILLS NEWS

Velda and Noah decided to join their friends at the local health food restaurant, Ronko's, before their team basketball practice. On the way, Noah asked Velda if he could borrow money to add matsutake mushrooms to his meal deal. Velda told him she didn't have any money that he could borrow. Noah knew he was going to be Accepting No For An Answer. He looked at Velda and said, "Okay." He realized that he should not argue, whine or pout because he could always calmly ask for a reason later if he didn't understand why she refused to loan him money.

When Velda began to say that Noah was "always" asking her for money, he knew How To Disagree Appropriately. He looked at her. Using a pleasant tone of voice, he said "I understand that it may seem like I am always asking you for money, but I respectfully disagree. I am not always asking for money; I have not asked to borrow money from you for six months, not since the end of the last school year when we went on the field trip. Thanks for listening to me." Velda smiled because inside she appreciated Noah for not getting upset with her harsh words and she knew he was right. "What a great friend!" she thought to herself.

Later, as Velda and Noah joined their classmates for pita chips and avocado salsa, they saw Chris and Kelly, some friends from another school, with a group of their school friends. They were older students and were behaving very inappropriately; they were throwing avocado salsa and dirty napkins all over the floor. Chris and Kelly knew that it was time for Ignoring Behaviors. They tried not to look at the group, and they stayed focused on eating their meal even when Chris, Kelly and their friends encouraged them to throw salsa and napkins on the floor. Velda and Noah knew they should report the behavior to a nearby adult.

Suddenly, Noah laughed and began to throw his pita chips and napkins on the floor. He sometimes found it difficult to control his behavior in stressful situations even when he knew he should. Noah quickly noticed that the other students at the table, including Velda, were not happy with his behavior. They told him to stop. Then, Noah told himself to stop and think about what he was doing, a strategy which helped him correct the behavior that appeared to make his classmates uncomfortable. When Noah began to clean up the mess that he made, he noticed that his new behavior made the other students in his group smile. "What a great friend!" the group thought to themselves, because Noah was Self-Correcting his Own Behavior.

FAZOLI'S NIGHT

Join us on Wednesday, December 21, from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at the Fazoli's restaurant at 80th & Cass Streets. Every third Wednesday of the month will be Fazoli's Night at the Cass Street location.

CASH FOR STUDENTS

Velda and Noah's group behaved so well that the people from Ronko's called the school to tell the principal that the students were excellent role models. Chris and Kelly's group behaved so poorly that the people from Ronko's called their parents! When Velda and Noah heard that news, they were very happy that their social skills worked outside school as well as at school. The rest of their meals at Ronko's were very enjoyable.

DRESS DOWN DAY

There will be a Dress Down Day on Tuesday, November 22nd. "Dress Down" means casual attire including t-shirts, jeans, sweatpants, sweatshirts and blouses. Sleeveless shirts and bare midriffs are not allowed. Jeans and sweatpants must be without holes and tears. Girls may wear leggings, but they must be accompanied with an extra long sweater, blouse or skirt. Flannel pants and/or pajama pants may NOT be worn. We recommend that students not wear any clothing that is too tight or too short. Shorts are not "In Season" so may NOT be worn. As with any school day, the sock, shoe and jewelry code are in effect, except that the students are allowed to wear any color of socks and any shoes that have the heels and toes closed.
